

Christian Antiquities Presents

The Archaeology of Roman Pollentia and a Search for Early Christianity

Tuesday, April 4 | 7:15pm, Bauccio Commons | Free & open to all
Receptions at 6pm and immediately following the lecture

Please join us for an evening with internationally acclaimed archeologist Dr. Miguel Ángel Cau Ontiveros, ICREA Research Professor and director of the Archaeological and Archaeometrical Research Unit of the University of Barcelona.

As scientific director of archaeological excavations in the Balearic Islands, particularly in the Roman and Late Antique city of Pollentia, Dr. Cau has welcomed collaboration of UP faculty and students since 2014. For ADA accommodations or more info: 503-943-7702 or garaventa@up.edu.

UP PURE provides research opportunities for students across all disciplines of the University.

Sponsored by

The Initiative for Christian Antiquities ~ Office of the Provost
Garaventa Center for Catholic Intellectual Life and American Culture
Shiley School of Engineering and the Department of Theology

University of Portland

5000 N Willamette Blvd, Portland, Oregon 97203